Your Honor,

My name is Burak, and my wife name is Jadranka. We agreed to get a divorce early November and came to the Sarasota Courthouse together to file a petition of dissolution of marriage on November 12, 2025. Upon filing the petition we received a letter stating paragraph 6 (financial exchange) was incomplete, and the parties must file a Form A. After learning the petition was incomplete Jadranka started to become involved with the divorce. Before Jadranka and I got married we agreed to have a prenup made stating we have no financial responsibilities or obligations to one another during our marriage or should our marriage ever end in a divorce. I attached this prenup to the petition of dissolution of marriage that I submitted today. Although Jadranka and I both signed this prenup, Jadranka is refusing to comply with any requests made involving divorce. I have attempted to reach out to Jadranka multiple times, however she is still refusing to comply with the divorce. I am aware we needed to respond to the court request of missing information by December 17, 2025. Although Jadranka is not being compliant, I wanted to insure I responded to the court on my behalf. I submitted the amended petition of dissolution of marriage with paragraph 6 corrected and the prenup attached. I also submitted a form A on my behalf.

If there is anything else that is missing or is needed on my behalf, I will follow the orders of the court promptly.

Thank you for taking your time to read this letter.
I wish you happy holidays.

Sincerely, Burak Ali Aras.
